

Consent to application for a residence permit for children or minors

You must complete and sign this form if you agree that your child under 18 years of age will reside in Norway with the other parent.

If you have more than one child applying, you must complete one form for each child.

When the child applies for a residence permit, they must submit this form together with a copy of your passport or other identification with a photo and signature.

Check the option that applies to you

In order for the UDI to approve the consent, you must either have it stamped by a notary public or

meet in person at the application center with your child when the child submits the application for a residence permit. You must bring this form and your passport or other identification with a photo and signature.
